53rd WORLD DAY OF PEACE
1st of JANUARY 2020

PEACE AS A JOURNEY OF HOPE:
DIALOGUE, RECONCILIATION AND
ECOLOGICAL CONVERSION

Franciscus

1. Peace, a journey of hope in the face of obstacles and trial
2. Peace, a journey of listening based on memory, solidarity and fraternity
3. Peace, a journey of reconciliation in fraternal communion
4. Peace, a journey of ecological conversion
5. “We obtain all that we hope for”

Peace as a journey

Peace “must be built up continually” [GS 78]; it is a journey made together in a constant pursuit of the common good, truthfulness and respect for law.
PM 2020

The Peace process thus requires enduring commitment... This is a social undertaking, an ongoing work in which each individual makes his or her contribution responsibly, at every level of the local, national and global community.” PM 2020

Are we ready to make this journey:

To go further, to move on, to make a step forward?

To be involved? To be committed together?

Peace, as a journey of hope

Hope at the heart of Pope Francis' World Day of Peace Messages

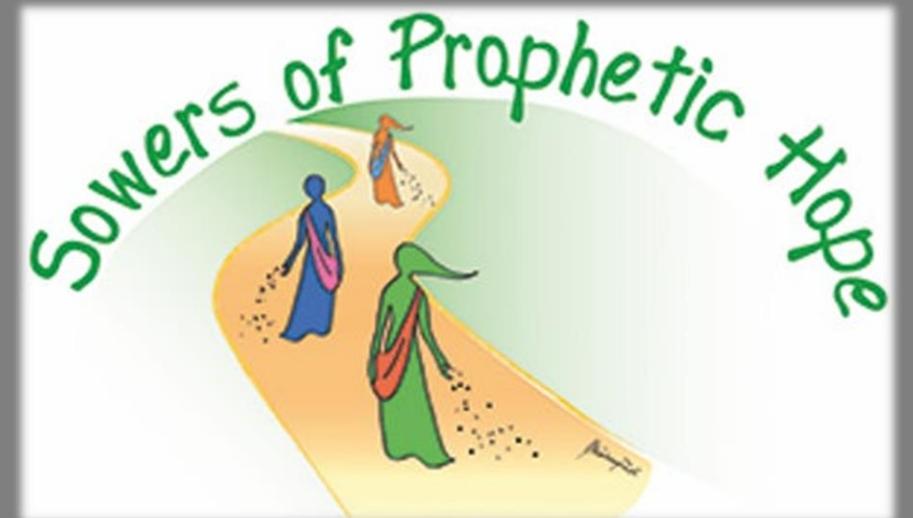

Common theme running through all of Pope Francis' World Day of Peace messages, it is Christian hope.

Pope's messages always end up focusing on the face of Jesus, as the source of our hope and inspiration for peaceful coexistence.

Hope at the heart of Pope Francis teaching and living witness

- ✓ Let us not allow ourselves to be robbed of hope! Yes to the new relationships brought by Christ. EG 86
- ✓ Challenges exist to be overcome! Let us be realists, but without losing our joy, our boldness and our hope-filled commitment. Let us not allow ourselves to be robbed of missionary vigour! EG 109
- ✓ Christ, risen and glorified, is the wellspring of our hope, and he will not deprive us of the help we need to carry out the mission which he has entrusted to us. EG 265
- ✓ May we never remain on the side-lines of this march of living hope! EG 278
- ✓ May our struggles and our concern for this planet never take away the joy of our hope. LS 244
- ✓ Hope is thus the virtue that inspires us and keeps us moving forward, even when obstacles seem insurmountable PM 2020

1. Peace, a journey of hope in the face of obstacles and trial

Increase of social inequalities

Hegemonic ambitions

Violence

Abuses of power

War

Seeing diversity as an obstacle

Fear of others

Divisions within a society

Mistrust

Inability to accept the diversity of others

Corruption

Exploitation

Internal and international conflicts

Threat of total annihilation

Every war is a form of fratricide that destroys the human family's innate vocation to brotherhood.

Questions that need to be asked:

- ✓ How, then, do we undertake a journey of peace and mutual respect?
- ✓ How do we break the unhealthy mentality of threats and fear?
- ✓ How do we break the current dynamic of distrust?

We need to pursue a genuine fraternity based on our common origin from God and exercised in dialogue and mutual trust. The desire for peace lies deep within the human heart, and we should not resign ourselves to seeking anything less than this.

2. Peace, a journey of listening based on memory, solidarity and fraternity

“We cannot allow present and future generations to lose the memory of what happened here. It is a memory that ensures and encourages the building of a more fair and fraternal future”

Pope Francis, Hiroshima Peace Memorial, 24 November 2019

Like the Hibakusha (survivors of the atomic bombs), many people in today's world are working to ensure that future generations will preserve the memory of past events,

- in order to prevent the same errors or illusions from recurring,
- to enable memory, as the fruit of experience, to serve as the basis and inspiration for present and future decisions to promote peace.

Am I sensitive to people's memories:

In the country
where I come from?

In the country where I'm appointed for missionary life?

Memory is the horizon of hope.

Many times, in the darkness of wars and conflicts, the remembrance of even a small gesture of solidarity received can lead to courageous and even heroic decisions. It can unleash new energies and kindle new hope in individuals and communities.

The world does not need empty words
but convinced witnesses,
peacemakers who are open to a dialogue
that rejects exclusion or manipulation.

Listening to one another can lead to mutual understanding and esteem, and even to seeing in an enemy the face of a brother or sister.

3. Peace, a journey of reconciliation in fraternal communion

The Bible, especially in the words of the Prophets, reminds individuals and peoples of God's covenant with humanity, which entails renouncing our desire to dominate others and learning to see one another as persons, sons and daughters of God, brothers and sisters.

Path of RESPECT

Only by choosing the path of respect can we break the spiral of vengeance and set out on the journey of hope.

Path of RECONCILIATION

When we learn to live in forgiveness, we grow in our capacity to become men and women of peace.

4. Peace, a journey of ecological conversion

Faced with the consequences of our hostility towards others, our lack of respect for our common home or our abusive exploitation of natural resources – seen only as a source of immediate profit, regardless of local communities, the common good and nature itself – we are in need of an ecological conversion.

This journey of reconciliation also calls for listening and contemplation of the world that God has given us as a gift to make our common home.

We need to change the way we think and see things, and to become more open to encountering others and accepting the gift of creation, which reflects the beauty and wisdom of its Creator.

A new way to dwell in our common home, to accept our differences, to respect and celebrate the life that we have received and share, and to seek living conditions and models of society that favour the continued flourishing of life and the development of the common good of the entire human family.

A new way of looking at life, as we consider the generosity of the Creator who has given us the earth and called us to share it in joy and moderation. This conversion must be understood in an integral way, as a transformation of how we relate to our sisters and brothers, to other living beings, to creation in all its rich variety and to the Creator who is the origin and source of all life.

5. “We obtain all that we hope for”

The journey of reconciliation calls for patience and trust. Peace will not be obtained unless it is hoped for.

This means believing in the possibility of peace, believing that others need peace just as much as we do. Here we can find inspiration in the love that God has for each of us: a love that is liberating, limitless, gratuitous and tireless.

The grace of God our Father is bestowed as unconditional love. Having received his forgiveness in Christ, we can set out to offer that peace to the men and women of our time.

Day by day, the Holy Spirit prompts in us ways of thinking and speaking that can make us artisans of justice and peace.

The culture of fraternal encounter shatters the culture of conflict. It makes of every encounter a possibility and a gift of God's generous love. It leads us beyond the limits of our narrow horizons and constantly encourages us to a live in a spirit of universal fraternity, as children of the one heavenly Father.

Concrete efforts of building universal fraternity:

- Encounter in Abu Dhabi between Pope Francis and Grand Sheikh of Al Azhar Dr. Ahmed At-Tayyeb, 4th of February 2019: they signed the document "Human Fraternity for World Peace and Living Together"
- Apostolic journey of Pope Francis, "Servant of Hope", to Morocco, 30-31 march 2019

How do we face the challenge of expanding:

- the circles of fraternity and solidarity?
- the circles of being sisters and brothers?

Do I recognise the other, different from me,
as brother or sister?

The other,
without making any exception!

How can we, as JPIC promoters, encourage and foster the universal fraternity and solidarity?

- ✓ Among our members?
- ✓ Within communities?
- ✓ Within Catholic Church?
- ✓ Within the society where we live?

May the God of peace bless us
and come to our aid.

May Mary, Mother of the
